

KINGSBURG ARTS CENTER IS LOOKING FOR LOCAL WRITERS!

We are interested in authors of all types of books: children's books, literary masterpieces, novels, graphic novels, or non-fiction and illustrated books. Books may be placed on consignment with the Gallery. The Gallery collects a 20% commission on all sales.

When you place your books on consignment with us, a publicity release about the you is sent to the local newspaper(s) and posted on the internet. The notice includes links to your website, E-Book, and to local bookstores carrying your work.

Your Responsibility: E-Mail a copy of your profile when placing your books with us. You are responsible for delivery of the books and a hard copy of your profile for the binder to the Gallery. Your profile should include how and why you got started writing, what type of books are written, where the books can be found, links to your web site, E-book, etc.). Bring in 12 —8 signed copies of your books and leave at the gallery for sale. Attend at least two organized book signing events per year. Usually in May and in December to take advantage of Swedish Festival and the Christmas season. The gallery collects a 20% commission on all sales of items placed with us.

Information about your books: this should include the title of the book and a short blurb about the book or series (similar to the write-up usually found on the front flap of the dust jacket). A n 11 x 14 color poster of the cover of your latest book. will be appreciated

For more information, contact Gallery Director Gail Daley at 559-960-2428 or KingsburgArtCenter@att.net. A copy of the consignment agreement is available on our web site: www.kingsburgartscenter.com

